INTRODUCTION

This Bulletin contains an analysis, in summary form, of the dwellings in Australia as enumerated at the Census of 30th June, 1961. It brings together the information already published in separate Bulletins for individual States and Territories. The information may be subject to minor amendment on completion of later tabulations. A list of 1961 Census publications already issued appears at the end of this Bulletin.

This Bulletin is divided into two parts. In Part A dwellings for the whole of Australia are classified according to class (i.e. private house, flat, etc.), material of outer walls, number of rooms, number of inmates, nature of occupancy, date of building, weekly rent and facilities. Each major table shows the numbers of each class of private dwelling and the numbers of total private dwellings in each Division according to one particular characteristic (e.g., number of rooms or inmates of dwellings). In Part B (Tables 11-20) each table shows particulars for each State and Territory and for Australia as a whole. Tables 11, 12 and 20 are summary tables and Tables 13-19 show the numbers of each class of private dwelling according to a particular characteristic.

At a later stage a more detailed analysis will be published showing particulars of dwellings in a series of cross-tabulations (e.g., the numbers of dwellings according to both numbers of rooms and inmates, etc.).

A Bulletin "Summary of Population for Australia" will shortly be issued. Census Bulletin No. 2 - Population and Dwellings in Local Government Areas, issued on 14th March, 1962 shows for each State the numbers of the population and occupied and unoccupied dwellings in each Local Government Area and in each major town according to the Statisticial Divisions in which they are situated.

All information in this Bulletin is exclusive of full-blood aborigi-nals and of dwellings occupied solely by them.

DEFINITIONS AND SCOPE.

Occupied Dwelling: An occupied dwelling is any habitation occupied by a household group living together as a domestic unit, whether comprising the whole or only part of a building. The term has therefore a very wide reference and includes, in addition to houses and flats, a great variety of "dwellings" ranging from a single-roomed shack to a multi-roomed hotel or institution. Occupied dwellings are classified into "private" and "other than private" dwellings.

Private Dwelling: Private dwellings are further classified into the following four categories -

Private House: Private Houses include houses, sheds, huts, garages, etc. used for dwelling purposes, and shared private houses for which only one Householder's Schedule was received.

Share of Private House: A Share of a Private House is a portion of a shared private house which is occupied separately and for which portion a separate Householder's Schedule was received.

Flat: A Flat is part of a house or other building which can be completely closed off and which has its own cooking and bathing facilities.

Other Private Dwelling: These include private dwellings such as rooms, apartments, etc., which are parts of buildings but are not self-contained units.

Other than Private Dwelling: These include Hotels; Motels; Boarding Houses, Lodging Houses and Hostels; Educational, Religious and Charitable Institutions; Hospitals; Defence and Penal Establishments; Police and Fire Stations; Clubs; Staff Barracks and Quarters, etc.

Unoccupied Dwelling: These include vacant dwellings available for sale or renting; dwellings such as "week-ender", "holiday home", "second home", "seasonal workers' quarters", which were not occupied on the night of the Census; dwellings normally occupied but whose usual occupants were temporarily absent on the night of the Census; newly completed dwellings whose owners or tenants had not entered into occupation on the night of the Census; dwellings described as "to be demolished", "condemned", "deceased estate", "exhibition home", etc.; and buildings constructed as dwellings but used for non-dwelling purposes on the night of the Census. The total number of unoccupied dwellings shown for any area must not, therefore, be read as representing the number of vacant houses and flats available for sale or renting.

The detailed information in this Bulletin relates to private dwellings occupied at the date of the Census. However, information relating to the number of occupied dwellings other than private is given in Tables 2 and 12 and a summary by Urban and Rural Divisions of unoccupied dwellings classified according to the reasons why the dwellings were unoccupied is shown in Tables 10 and 20.

In the tables which follow, the Metropolitan Urban Division includes the Capital City of each State and the City of Canberra, the National Capital. The boundaries of the Metropolitan Areas are determined for Census purposes by the Deputy Commonwealth Statistician in each State and include, together with the city proper, a number of adjacent municipalities and shires.

"Other Urban" relates to (i) all separately incorporated Municipalities (or Cities, Towns or Boroughs) outside the Metropolitan Urban Divisions except for any Municipality or part of a Municipality which was specifically regarded as rural for Census purposes, or where the population of the whole Municipality was less than 1,000 persons (750 persons in Tasmania); and (ii) Towns, not separately incorporated, with a population of 1,000 persons or more (750 persons in Tasmania). "Rural" comprises the remaining portions of each State and Territory.

Because of the spreading of metropolitan urban population, changes were made at the 1961 Census to the Metropolitan Urban divisional boundaries in several States. In particular, amendments were made to the boundaries of "Metropolitan Urban" in Tasmania, Queensland and Victoria. A number of changes were also made in the composition of the Other Urban Division in each State and the Northern Territory. As a result of these changes the composition of the Rural Divisions was also affected. The effect of these intercensal changes may be measured by comparing Tables 1 and 1A of this Bulletin. Adjustments have been made to the 1954 figures in Table 1 in order to provide approximate comparison on the 1961 Census basis. However, no adjustments have been made to the 1954 figures in Tables 2 to 6 and 8 and the effect of intercensal changes must be borne in mind when making intercensal comparisons in these tables.

PART A. - DWELLINGS IN AUSTRALIA

CENSUS, 30TH JUNE, 1961

1. Summary of Population and Dwellings. - The following table shows the urban and rural distribution of the population and dwellings in Australia at the Censuses of 1954 and 1961. The figures shown for the 1954 Census have been adjusted to conform to the boundaries used in 1961.

(a) In 1958 the area of Queensland was revised by the Queensland Surveyor-General. The 1954 areas for Australia shown in this table include the areas for Queensland on this revised basis within the boundaries used in 1961. (b) Includes 34 square miles of New South Wales Harbours, Rivers and Quarantine not included in the areas of Urban or Rural Divisions. (c) Includes migratory population (persons on ships, long-distance trains, motor coaches or aircraft) not included in Urban or Rural Divisions. (d) Excludes migratory. (e) Private and non-private. (f) Occupied and unoccupied dwellings.

Similar adjustment of 1954 data cannot be provided in the tables which follow but comparison of the figures in Table 1A with the 1954 figures in Table 1 will show the effects of changes made between the Censuses. These effects should be borne in mind when making intercensal comparisons in other tables.

(a) For definitions see page 3. (b) In respect of which a separate Householder's Schedule was received. (c) Prior to 1961 single self-contained dwellings attached to or situated above offices, shops, etc., were classified as private houses irrespective of the description stated in the Householder's Schedule. In 1961 such dwellings, if described as self-contained flats, were classified as flats. (d) Includes "caretakers' quarters" which in 1961 were classified as private dwellings.

Private houses constituted 87.5 per cent. and flats 7.8 per cent. of all occupied private dwellings in 1961 compared with 87.7 per cent. and 5.4 per cent. respectively in 1954. The number of flats increased by 70.8 per cent. since 1954 but the extent to which this increase was affected by the change in classification referred to in note (c) to Table 2 is not known. The total number of occupied private dwellings increased by 18.7 per cent.

At 30th June, 1961, 57.8 per cent. of all occupied private dwellings were in the Metropolitan Urban Division compared with 55.9 per cent. in 1954. The proportion in "Other Urban" was 25.4 per cent. (24.3 per cent. in 1954) and in "Rural" 16.8 per cent. (19.8 per cent. in 1954).

3. Occupied Private Dwellings according to Material of Outer Walls. - Wood was the most frequently used material for outer walls in Australia. At 30th June, 1961 it was used in 41.5 per cent. of those occupied private dwellings where material of outer walls was stated compared with 44.4 per cent. in 1954.

Private dwellings with outer walls of brick were second in numerical importance in 1961, as in 1954, increasing from 33.6 per cent. of total occupied private dwellings (with stated material of outer walls) in 1954 to 34.3 per cent. in 1961.

At both Censuses private dwellings with walls of fibro-cement were third in numerical importance (16.3 per cent. of total occupied private dwellings in 1961; 12.7 per cent. in 1954). This was followed by dwellings with walls of stone (1961, 3.0 per cent., 1954, 3.7 per cent.) and walls of concrete (1961, 2.7 per cent., 1954, 2.2 per cent.).

The Rural Division with 55.3 per cent., had the greatest proportion of total dwellings with wooden walls. This compared with 54.8 per cent. in "Other Urban" and 31.6 per cent. in "Metropolitan Urban". The proportion of total dwellings with walls of brick was greatest in "Metropolitan Urban" (50.3 per cent.) compared with 16.1 per cent. in "Other Urban" and 6.9 per cent. in "Rural". The greatest proportion of total dwellings with walls of fibro-cement occurred in the Rural Division (21.0 per cent.).

The highest percentage increase between Censuses was recorded by occupied private dwellings with walls of fibro-cement, 52.5 per cent.; followed by concrete, 46.5 per cent.; brick, 21.3 per cent.; and wood, 10.9 per cent. There were decreases of 19.8 per cent. and 5.1 per cent. respectively in the numbers of dwellings with walls of iron and stone.

4. Occupied Private Dwellings according to Number of Rooms. - The following table shows the number of occupied private dwellings classified according to number of rooms at the Censuses of 1954 and 1961.

At 30th June, 1961 four, five and six roomed occupied private dwellings together accounted for 76.4 per cent. of those occupied private dwellings where number of rooms was stated. In 1954 the proportion was 74.5 per cent. In both 1961 and 1954 private dwellings with five rooms were the most numerous and represented 34.5 per cent. and 31.4 per cent. respectively of private dwellings with stated number of rooms. Flats with four rooms were the most numerous at both Censuses.

The greatest proportional increases in the numbers of occupied private dwellings since the 1954 Census occurred in five, seven, and eight roomed private dwellings which increased by 30.3 per cent., 26.9 per cent., and 25.3 per cent. respectively. The total number of flats showed a greater proportional increase than the number of any other class of dwelling and this applied generally throughout the size range. In particular there were large increases since 1954 in the numbers of one, two, and three roomed flats, the increases being 196.7 per cent., 181.4 per cent., and 96.5 per cent. respectively. The extent to which these increases were affected by the change in classification referred to in note (c) to Table 2 is not known.

A trend towards private houses with more rooms is indicated in the average number of rooms per private house which in 1961 was 5.39 compared with 5.26 in 1954. The average number of rooms per private dwelling was greatest in the Rural Division.

The greatest proportional increase since 1954 in the number of occupied private dwellings occurred in those with one inmate, the growth of 33.9 per cent. being due mainly to an increase of 34.5 per cent. in the number of private houses with one inmate and an increase of 108.3 per cent. in the number of flats with one inmate. The numbers of flats with two, three and four inmates showed substantial increases of 66.7 per cent., 46.7 per cent. and 61.8 per cent. respectively since 1954.

At 30th June, 1961 dwellings with less than 6 inmates represented 86.4 per cent. of total occupied private dwellings compared with 87.2 per cent. in 1954.

Dwellings with 6 or more inmates increased by 25.6 per cent. between Censuses while those with less than 6 increased by 17.7 per cent.

Two-inmate dwellings were the most numerous in 1961 and 1954, accounting for 23.7 per cent. and 23.3 per cent. respectively of total occupied private dwellings.

The average number of inmates per private dwelling for Australia was 3.55 at both the 1954 and 1961 Censuses. In private houses the average rose from 3.69 in 1954 to 3.70 in 1961. In shares of private houses it rose from 2.71 to 2.82 but in flats remained constant at 2.58. There was a higher average number of inmates per private dwelling in 1961 in the Metropolitan Urban and Rural Divisions but a lower average in "Other Urban".

6. Occupied Private Dwellings according to Nature of Occupancy. - The following table shows the nature of occupancy of private dwellings at the Censuses of 1954 and 1961.

(a) Includes Sheds, Huts, etc. For definitions see page 3. (b) See footnote (c) to Table 2. (c) Compiled from the answers furnished in response to the instruction on the Householder's Schedule "Tenant paying rent to a Governmental Authority to write 'Tenant (G)'". This instruction was the same for all States and Territories. (d) At the 1961 Census, Householders were instructed on the Schedule to write "Tenant (G)" if they paid rent to the Governmental Housing Authority in their State or Territory. In New South Wales, for example, the instruction on the Householder's Schedule was "Tenant paying rent to Housing Commission of N.S.W. to write 'Tenant (G)'".

The most significant features of this table are the increase in the number of occupied private dwellings being purchased by instalments and the decrease in those tenanted (excluding tenanted governmental dwellings). Of those occupied private dwellings where nature of occupancy was stated the proportion being purchased by instalments rose from 15.2 per cent. in 1954 to 22.5 per cent. in 1961. This increase occurred principally in the number of private houses being purchased by instalments, the proportion of which rose from 16.8 per cent. in 1954 to 25.1 per cent. in 1961. The proportion of tenanted non-governmental dwellings declined from 30.0 per cent. in 1954 to 23.3 per cent. in 1961.

The proportion of owner-occupied dwellings declined from 48.1 per cent. in 1954 to 47.7 per cent. in 1961.

The proportional increases in the number of occupied private dwellings since 1954 were:- purchaser by instalments, 76.7 per cent. and owner, 17.8 per cent. The number of tenanted non-governmental dwellings decreased by 7.7 per cent. between Censuses.

The proportion of owned private dwellings was greatest in the Rural Area (63.3 per cent. in 1961; 62.4 per cent. in 1954) whereas the proportion which was either owned or being purchased by instalments was greatest in the Metropolitan Urban Division (70.8 per cent. in 1961; 61.5 per cent. in 1954). The proportion of tenanted dwellings (excluding tenanted governmental dwellings) was again greatest in "Metropolitan Urban" (23.6 per cent. in 1961; 33.4 per cent. in 1954).

In 1961, 71.5 per cent. of the flats in Australia were tenanted (excluding tenanted governmental flats) while only 16.5 per cent. of houses were tenanted. However, only 16.6 per cent. of flats were owned and 3.5 per cent. being purchased by instalments compared with 52.0 per cent. and 25.1 per cent. respectively for private houses.

(a) Includes Sheds, Huts, etc. For definitions see page 3. (b) This information was furnished by occupants of dwellings at 30th June, 1961. For a number of reasons the figures shown on this line do not agree with the number of dwellings by class recorded at the Census of 30th June, 1954, e.g., demolitions, conversion from one class of dwelling to another and errors of memory regarding date of building. Also the figures are not precisely comparable with 1954 data because of changes in classification of dwellings adopted at the 1961 Census, as indicated in Table 2. (c) After 30th June, 1954 but year not stated.

Of those occupied private dwellings in Australia where date of building was stated 21.8 per cent. were built after 30th June, 1954. In the Metropolitan Urban Division 22.4 per cent. were built after 30th June, 1954 while in "Other Urban" and "Rural" the proportions were 22.7 per cent. and 18.6 per cent. respectively.

8. Weekly Rent (Unfurnished) of Tenanted Private Dwellings. - The following table shows the rents paid for unfurnished private dwellings (excluding dwellings occupied by tenants paying rent to any Governmental Authority in 1954 and to a State Governmental Housing Authority in 1961) in Australia, as compiled from information supplied on individual Householders' Schedules at 30th June, 1954 and 1961. Of those tenanted private dwellings for which rent (unfurnished) was stated, 42.8 per cent. had rentals below 50s. in 1961 compared with 82.0 per cent. in 1954. In the range 50s. and under 100s. the proportion rose from 16.5 per cent. in 1954 to 36.7 per cent. in 1961. The proportion in the 100s. and over category rose from 1.5 per cent. in 1954 to 20.5 per cent. in 1961.

In 1961, 14.4 per cent. of tenanted private houses (with stated rent) and 39.9 per cent. of tenanted flats were in the rental range 100s. and over.

With rents under 60s. the metropolitan proportion of the Australian total was 48.2 per cent.; with rents 60s. - 100s. it was 61.4 per cent.; and with rents 100s. and over 82.3 per cent.

(a) The State figures used to compile this table exclude particulars of dwellings occupied by tenants paying rent to any Governmental Authority in 1954 and to a State Governmental Housing Authority in 1961. However, the data used for Australian Capital Territory and Northern Territory includes particulars of such dwellings. (b) Includes Sheds, Huts, etc. For definitions see page 3. (c) See footnote (c) to Table 2. (d) Includes tenanted dwellings which were rent-free, those rented on a furnished basis, and those for which the rents were not applicable (e.g., for shop and dwelling combined).

9. Occupied Private Dwellings according to Facilities. - The following table shows the facilities - gas, electricity, television set - recorded for each class of private dwelling in Urban and Rural Divisions.

The question on facilities was answered for 2,769,833 occupied private dwellings in Australia. Of these 1,423,825 (51.4 per cent.) had electricity but not gas and 1,251,191 (45.2 per cent.) had both electricity and gas, making a combined total of 2,675,016 (96.6 per cent.) with electricity. Occupied private dwellings with gas but not electricity numbered only 5,765 (0.2 per cent.).

In the Metropolitan Urban Division 99.7 per cent. of occupied private dwellings had electricity while in the Other Urban and Rural Divisions the proportions with electricity were 98.7 per cent. and 82.5 per cent. respectively.

The proportion of private dwellings with both electricity and gas was 65.6 per cent. in "Metropolitan Urban", 25.3 per cent. in "Other Urban" and 4.4 per cent. in "Rural".

The number of occupied private dwellings in Australia stated to have a television set was 1,278,661 of which 1,038,837 (81.2 per cent.) were in the Metropolitan Urban Division. In "Metropolitan Urban" 64.6 per cent. of occupied private dwellings were stated to have a television set.
